Where: Camp Kawkawa in Hope, BC, It takes approximately 1.5 hours to drive there from South Surrey. Men are responsible for their travel to and from the camp, however if anyone needs a lift, please contact us.

When: Friday May 25th to Sunday May 27th

Itinerary: Check in at 7:30 PM on Friday evening, welcome and introduction to our guest speaker and weekend message at 8:30 PM.

The weekend will be anchored by 4 sessions with our live worship band and our guest speaker Dr. Paul Chamberlain, who will unpack our theme Be Prepared; Knowing and Understanding the hope that we have. First session starts Friday evening at 8:30, Session 2 after breakfast Saturday morning, Session three after dinner Saturday evening, and Session four on Sunday morning after breakfast.

The weekend includes lodging, meals, snacks, camp style and team building activities (kayaking, surf bikes, canoeing, volleyball, campfires, bouldering, hiking), and free time to relax and enjoy the camp surroundings between sessions.

We will wrap up at 10:15 am Sunday and those who will be participating in rafting can make their way over to the Chilliwack River rafting site.

What To Bring: sleeping bag, pillow, towel and personal toiletries, sturdy hiking or running shoes, activity and outdoor appropriate clothing.

Optional River Rafting Adventure

Where: Chilliwack River Rafting, on the Chilliwack River, at 49704 Chilliwack Lake Road, (directions and map will be provided)

When: 12:30pm Sunday May 27th starts with lunch and ends approximately 5 or 5:30 pm

What To Bring: shorts or bathing suit, towel, shoes that can get wet, dry and warm change of clothes, (rafting company will supply wetsuit, helmet, life jacket)